Direct answer: The Demex Group (Demex) is an independent modeled-loss analytics and secondary-peril reinsurance provider spun out of Munich Re in 2020, with U.S. origins in Washington, DC and New York. Demex offers Severe Convective Storm Reinsurance (SCS Re) and Winter Storm Reinsurance (WS Re) to protect carriers against retained weather losses.

What Demex Models and Sells

Demex builds machine-learning and climate-science models calibrated to high-frequency, retained secondary weather perils rather than peak hurricane or earthquake tail events alone. It packages those modeled-loss triggers into end-to-end reinsurance protections—SCS Re and WS Re—placed alongside reinsurance brokers and A-rated capacity providers.
