EigenRisk — Catastrophe Modeling Vendor Profile

Published November 21, 2026 · Risk Coverage Hub (riskcoveragehub.com) · Informational reference only; zero vendor rankings.

Direct answer: EigenRisk, Inc. is an independent Ann Arbor, Michigan cloud software vendor operating EigenPrism®, a multi-model catastrophe exposure management, accumulation control, and real-time event-response platform used by insurers, MGAs, brokers, and corporate risk teams.

What EigenRisk Models and Sells

Rather than competing purely as a single-peril proprietary hazard developer, EigenRisk operates EigenPrism® as a unified cloud workspace for exposure data ingestion, geocoding quality auditing, accumulation monitoring, real-time catastrophe footprint alerts, and API-driven reporting. It integrates third-party hazard layers and catastrophe model outputs into underwriting, claims triage, and client-portal workflows.
