Jupiter Intelligence — Catastrophe Modeling Vendor Profile

Published November 21, 2026 · Risk Coverage Hub (riskcoveragehub.com) · Informational reference only; zero vendor rankings.

Direct answer: Jupiter Intelligence is an independent San Mateo, California climate risk analytics vendor operating the ClimateScore™ Global platform. Its modular products—RiskSignal, Compliance Hub, Entity Modeling, MetricEngine, and Adaptation Hub—quantify asset-level physical risk and adaptation ROI for financial institutions, insurers, and corporations.

What Jupiter Intelligence Models and Sells

Jupiter licenses ClimateScore™ Global and its decision modules to move organizations beyond qualitative hazard scores into financial loss, balance-sheet, and capital-allocation modeling. RiskSignal evaluates portfolio exposure over time; Compliance Hub supports regulatory disclosures; Entity Modeling maps corporate asset footprints; and Adaptation Hub quantifies the ROI of physical resilience investments.
