Parametrix — Catastrophe Modeling Vendor Profile

Published November 21, 2026 · Risk Coverage Hub (riskcoveragehub.com) · Informational reference only; zero vendor rankings.

Direct answer: Parametrix Solutions, Inc. is an independent New York-headquartered Managing General Agent and Lloyd's Coverholder (with Tel Aviv R&D) specializing in digital-infrastructure downtime modeling and parametric insurance. Its monitoring network tracks 9,000+ cloud, AI, and SaaS providers to price systemic cloud-outage catastrophe risk and SLA coverage.

What Parametrix Models and Sells

Parametrix operates a continuous global telemetry network analyzing over 1 billion data points weekly across 9,000+ IaaS, PaaS, and SaaS dependencies. It turns that telemetry into portfolio accumulation analytics (Cloud Outage Analytics) and parametric risk-transfer products backed by A-rated carriers—including Data Center SLA Insurance, Neocloud SLA Insurance for financed GPU clusters, Critical Systems Outage Insurance, and CyberPMX.
